

Biography

Richard E. Cleveland PhD LPC NCC ACS MHFA-I	Name and surname
Georgia Southern University Counselor Education Med Program Tactical Athlete Research United States of American	University/company/unit represented
Tactical Mindfulness; Mindfulness-Based Interventions; Mental Health & Resilience with First Responder/Military Populations; Clinical Mental Health Counseling; School Counseling	Scientific and non-scientific interests
American Counseling Association American School Counselor Association Georgia POST Law Enforcement Resiliency Instructor	Memberships (optional with information on which years)
Cleveland, R. E. (in review). Addressing trauma in context: Domain relevance in resilience services. 2023 Oxford Symposium in School-Based Family Counseling Published Proceedings. Cleveland, R. E. (2020). Aware I am alone: Intersections of solitude and mindfulness. Pedagogia Christiana. Cleveland, R. E., Hilpert, J., & Cleveland, A. E. (2018). Evaluating and infusing participants' stress levels in dynamic training. Interservice/Industry Training, Simulation and Education Conference, National Defense Industrial Association.	Selected publications (2-3 most important)

A sentence about Economy 4.0 and/or the conference:

I am honored and excited to engage with international scholars in dialogue about how I see mindfulness as a critical component of meaning and belonging in our professional and personal lives.